

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Website: www.cma-atlanta.com

EIGHT YEARS IN A ROW!

CMA NAMED GEORGIA'S TOP COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION
MANAGEMENT COMPANY IN 2011

ATLANTA, GA, December 23, 2011 – Once again, Community Management Associates takes the top property management position in the Book of Lists in 2011. "We could not be prouder that the Atlanta Business Chronicle Book of Lists has named Community Management Associates as the top Community Association Management Company again this year", stated Dan Henning, CMA's Chief Executive Officer. "Each and every CMA employee has helped us earn this recognition; we are fortunate to have experienced extraordinary growth again this year. We plan for continued growth by consistently delivering exceptional property management services to our existing clientele, while strategically earning new business, as well." CMA's clients range from large Homeowner Associations, Developers and small in-town boutique condominium communities as well as large mixed use condominium developments.

About Community Management Associates

For more than twenty years, Community Management Associates has provided proven and professional property management throughout the Atlanta Metropolitan area. Our financial and full-service offerings are focused on homeowner associations, large and small, mid to high-rise condominium associations, co-ops, as well as master-planned communities. Technology and communication are key assets that we bring to all associations we manage.

CMA's Property Managers are licensed per the Georgia Real Estate Commission. Among our Property Management staff, we have Professional Community Association Managers (PCAM®), Association Management Specialists (AMS®), Certified Manager of Community Associations (CMCA®), the recipient of the 2000 Rita Kennedy Award, as well as the State of Georgia's 2005 Community Associations Institute (CAI) President.